By Mary Jane (Fry) Wadsworth

The surging sea of human life forever
  onward rolls,
And bears to the eternal shore its
  daily freight of souls,
Though bravely sails our bark today,
  pale Death sits on the prow,
And few shall know we ever lived a hundred years from now.

PREFACE

In 1978, I published THE WADSWORTH FAMILY IN AMERICA, 1632-1977. Since that time, I have continued my research and had planned to publish a Supplement to the book. A number of those who purchased the book are now deceased and many others have moved and I do not have their current addresses. I believe a Supplement would be of little value without a copy of the 1978 book.

I have revised, corrected and added much new and previously unpublished information to the first edition. If all the information was included in one book it would be over 1000 pages and would be too expensive for many to purchase. Therefore, I will publish two books:

Book 1 - New England and New York

Book 2 - Maryland, Pennsylvania and the Southern States

The books will be limited to 150 copies of each edition. I have some English research and information on Wadsworths not connected with the above lines. Since I do not plan to publish this information, I will be glad to answer any questions you may have and perhaps find an answer.

My thanks to all of you for your help with the research. There is still much to be done, but I have no plans for future publications.

TITLE OF HERALDRY
WADSWORTH FAMILY

(As presented by Heralds College of England and as recorded by Burkes General Armory and Fairbanks Crests.)

From out of the Past, Before the Crusades, During the Normans Conquest of England, when King Harold was Killed at the Battle of Hastings and William the Conquerer claimed the Crown, ending the Anglo-Saxon line in the year 1066, the Wadsworth Family first came into existance in Normandy, France. The name was first called "Woodscourt" in Honor of the French Justice Court Held in the Woods.

In the year 1204, Normandy and France were Reunited and when the Magna-Charta was signed at Runnymead, the Wadsworth Family migrated to Yorkshire, England and settled in the town of Buckley. The Family were of the British Landed Gentry and Yormanry in 1273. Richard Wadsworth and his wife, Alice were living at Water Hall as early as 1329.

THE BATTLE OF CRESSY

In the war with France when Normandy was overrun by King Edward of England, at the Battle of Cressy, which was fought 100 miles North of Paris, on 26 August 1346, History Records the Following:

"Huddled together in a struggling mass with the setting sun glaring in their eyes, 60,000 French Archers, Princes, Knights and Nobles fought to the Death with 39,000 Englishmen at arms, 11,000 Archers and 5,000 Welshmen, The Right Flank being commanded by the Black Prince, a youth of 16 years who was making his debut as a fighter. The first advance was made by the Geneese Cross-Bowmen. The French Knights who not having covered their weapons during a sudden storm the night before which soaked their Bowstrings, Their Arrows fell short. The Third Division of the English was commanded by the King in Person who was posted as a Reserve Higher up the Hill from the River Somme at Abbeville.

"When the Battle ended after Sixteen successive charges by the French Knights the Heralds counted among the fallen over 15,000 Lords and Knights, The Loss among the lesser Ranks is not known, but has been estimated at 40,000 men and 10,000 horses.

"The Battle of Cressy was momentous, the very foundation of medieval Society was shaken when the Flower of French mailed Knighthood had to yield to the Deadly Flight of English Arrows as this Brigade of long Bowmen plunged and charged into the writhing swarm of men and horses, and thus ended with a mortal blow, the old system of warfare and the first notable English Triumph in the Honored Year War Was Here Achieved."

Thus we find the Romance of Emblazoned Heraldry which was presented to our Noble Heritage at the Battle of Cressy in 1346. The insignia of our Ancestory, Symbolizing Loyalty and courage, Knighthood Chivalry, Ennobled Dignity and Refined Culture.

COAT OF ARMS - WADSWORTH

A shield Gules, three Fleur-de-lis, stalked and slipped, Arragant; The Crest; on a terestriel globe, winged, pr an eagle rising ovr; The Motto:

"Aquila non captat muscas"

Applied meaning "Our great Progintors stooped not to small things."

Literal meaning: The eagle does not catch flies.

Metals: Gold or Yellos, Silver Argent or White.

Colors: Red gules, Blue-Azme, Black-Sable, Green-Vert, Purple-Purpose.

The name Wadsworth is supposed to be derived from Woods Court, or a court in the woods. From this we may infer that some ancestor held court in the woods. The name was then:

Literally - Woods-court
In German - Waldes-hoff
In Anglo Saxon - Waldes-weorth

The name Wadsworth is quite common in Yorkshire, England. The town of Wadsworth is near Halifax, in the wapentake of Morley.

Wadworth is in the parish of Doncaster, in the wapentake of Strafford and Tickhill. Both are in west Riding in Yorkshire.

WILLIAM WADSWORTH
(1594 - 1675)

William Wadsworth christened 26 February 1595, Long Buckley, Northamptonshire, England, son of William and Elizabeth Wadsworth. William Wadsworth, Sr was born about 1555, Long Buckley, married about 1580 Elizabeth, surname unknown. Elizabeth died 8 May 1602.

William Wadsworth, the emigrant, was a resident of Braintree, Essex County, England, when he married his first wife, Sarah Talcott in 1625. Sarah was born in 1598, Braintree, the daughter of John and Ann (Skinner) Talcott. Her father, John Talcott was baptized 4 October 1562, Colchester, England. His will was proved 29 January 1604. Ann Skinner was born about 1570, Colchester, England, and died 6 April 1637.

Sarah (Talcott) Wadsworth's grandparents were William Skinner born about 1542, Braintree, England, died 26 September 1616, Braintree, England. William Skinner married Marjorie, surname unknown. John Talcott born about 1536, Colchester, England, died 1 November 1606. Married Aliss Wells who was born 1540 at Colchester, England.

(1) William and Sarah (Talcott) Wadsworth were the parents of four known children: Sarah, William, Mary and John, all born in England. Since there is no further record of Sarah (Talcott) Wadsworth, it is believed that she died shortly after William's arrival at Boston in 1632. "The Planters of the Commonwealth" by Charles Edward Banks, p 99, lists Mrs Wadsworth and the four children who accompanied William Wadsworth on the "Lyon".

It is believed that William Wadsworth made a trip to America before settling here. In the "List of Emigrants to America, 1600-1700" edited by John Camden Hotten, an enumeration of the inhabitants of Virginia is given. Associated with Daniel Gookin in Newport News, and standing first on the list is the name of William Wadsworth, aged twenty-six years, and said to have come in the "Flying Harte" 22 November 1621. Later his name is given as being at Elizabeth City, with the same age, and associated with Daniel Gookin, but having fewer companions. (l.c.pp 243, 254)

Among the thirty-three men that embarked in the ship "Lion" on 22 June 1632, from London for New England, was William Wadsworth. Sailing with him were such men as John Talcott, William Goodwin, James Olmsted, John White, Nathaniel Richards, William Lewis, Robert Bartlett, Nicholas Clarke, Seth Grant and Edward Elmer, who were among the honored pioneers that founded Hartford, Connecticut.

The "Lion" arrived at Boston, Massachusetts, Sunday, 16 September 1632. William settled at Cambridge where he lived on the westerly side of Holyoke Street, near Harvard Street. He was a freeman in 1632 and a selectman in 1634-5. William sold his house to Elder Champney when he removed to Hartford in June 1636 "in the great exodus" headed by Thomas Hooker. In Hartford, William soon made his influence felt in public affairs. He was a representative to the General Court many times between 1636 and 1675. His house in Hartford continued in the Wadsworth family until 1773, when it went into the hands of George and William Burr, who were relatives of the family.

William Wadsworth married as his second wife, Elizabeth Stone on 2 July 1644. Elizabeth was baptised on 21 Oct 1621, the daughter of John Stone, and sister of Rev Samuel Stone, the friend and associate of Thomas Hooker.

Although the exact date of William's death is unknown, it is believed to have occurred between 16 May and 16 Oct 1675. In his Will, he gave £10 to his son, John, who was then married and living in Farmington, Ct. He gave his son, Thomas, his lands, with buildings thereon, at East Hartford, upon which he settled. William's estate was valued at £1677.13s.9d. His wife, Elizabeth died in 1681 as an inventory of her estate was taken in Dec of that year.

(175) JOSIAH WADSWORTH bp 8 Nov 1748, East Hartford, Ct, son of Thomas and Sarah (Arnold) Wadsworth, died 16 Aug 1837, buried Cobblestone Church Cemetery, Rotterdam, N Y. (NY State Arch, p 507).

Married 1/c 1769 Susannah Marsh, daughter of Capt Daniel and Ann (Morrison) Marsh, bp 13 Oct 1751 (1CR).
Married 2/Maria, surname unknown. Named as widow in Will.

Josiah is listed in "Roster of StateTroops" (Doc relating to Colonial History of State of NY, Albany: Weed, Parsons and Co, 1887), as pvt in Willet's Regt, Livingston Co (Vol 15, p 507). New York in Rev, Vol I, p 87, lists Col Marinus Willet in the Levies with Capt Abraham Livingston. Josiah received certificate #7194 in Capt Livingston's Co.

Josiah was 90 years old when he died. It was seven years before his Will was probated, and nearly three years before the estate was settled. By adding this ten years to his age, it would be 100 years before his tombstone was set. Tombstone gives his age as 100 years.

Letters from Yreka, Ca to Akron, O written by children of Frederick E Wadsworth regarding his proposed trip by ship to California:

Yreka, Cal April 2nd 1860

Dear Father

Your kind favor of date February 15th was received by due course of mail and it could have been answered before but I was determined that before I would if it was possible to ascertian for you whether it was calculated you were to be here this summer or not and having ascertained it and at the same time learing that Elijah would write in a few days by the overland mail, that Henry was writing, I thought then that I would give them time to get off so that you might first learn from them that calculation was that you would (if you could get ready in time) leave New York by steamer on the 5th of June, that you and Frances would be together, that Elijah would write so that you both might be under the care of Wells Fargo

& Co's messenger from New York who would take pleasure in seeing that you wanted for nothing on the voyage.

But Dr was in a quandry as to the amount of money it would be necessary to send. He thought that if you sold out all you had there and turned it into money even if you had to sacrifice it would be better than to leave it behind without knowing what was to become of it.

His letter though you will probably have received before you get this and what I have written will therefore be nothing new to you. Yet, as an old traveller I would like to give a little advice as to you prepartions for the trip which if followed I have no doubt will contribute much to your ease and pleasure.

In the first place remember that the more a person has in this world to take care of the more trouble he has and you will find it doubly so in all ways in travelling. Therefore have as little baggage as you can possibly get along with and that little nothing more than you can really want and you will find that will be less than you think for.

Do not hurry at any time, take time by the forlock and have things ready for the time of starting from any point some time before the hour and then proceed leasurely just not fearing that the cars or the boat will be so crowded that there will be no room for you or that they will get off before you get there. Upon your getting aboard the steamer at New York you will find everything upside down all in confusion. Everyone in a hurry busy doing something or nothing. Look at it as a matter of course in a few days or the next day everything will be set to rights stowed away in their proper places both passengers and baggage. You will meet many a one like yourself probably taking their first sea voyage and you and them will be not a little surprised at the change.

On your arrival at Aspenwall I think it would be better to remain on board overnight if the boat gets in anytime after 12 o'clock noon rather than go on shore to stay as the cars does not leave until morning and you will have ample time to get ready and get ashore. The messenger will see to your chang of ticket if there is any change to be made and will I am sure take pleasure in doing so.

Upon your arrival in Panama the steamer on this side will be in waiting and as there is but little to be seen I would advise you to get on board as early as practicable and there the same confusion as on the other steamer will be seen and will as soon as it was before be set to rights.

In San Francisco friends will be appointed to meet you when the steamer lands (if there is not one of us there ourselves) Where after remaining a few days to recruit from your sea voyage the balance of the way will be a pleasure trip.

All your luggage that you do not actually require on the trip such as books, papers, furniture and things you do not wish to see should be shipped from New York by sail vessel around the horn and your trunks of clothing that you will not want until you arrive here as freight on board the steamer where it will not be a trouble to you to look after. That that you intend shipping by sail vessel might be started as soon as you get it ready for shipment giving it in charge of some forwarding house but the Dr will give you advice as to that.

On your arrival here you will meet with a hearty welcome from all your children and may the Great Father of us all give you a safe and pleasant passage to the heartfelt pray of

Yours affectionately

James Reid

My dear Father

Mr Reid has left this page for me to fill but what canI say. All I think of is your coming and nothing I can say about that will hurry it in the least. I get almost crazy when I think of your starting alone with Frankie although Mr Reid is sure you will have no trouble. As he says you must not fret or hurry but take everything cool as possible Elijah will of course give you all necessary directions and tell you just what he wishes you to bring I wish you was safely here Tell Frankie she must not have anything to carry in her hands - it is the greatest possible bother - no matter is she does look like a witch on the road all she wants is to put on a bold face and not hesitate to ask any gentleman for any assistance you may need In traveling everone is selfish and will crowd and push for the best place but never mind I know you will fare best if you just stand back and take things easy I will write you a long letter in a day or two and tell you just how we did at every stopping place on the road for you will find our experience of any person who has been over the road will be beneficial I hope you can find some friend to come to New York with you We are going to write to Frankie today so I will wait with my advice for you until next letter.

Love to all - excuse great haste
Yours affectionately

Pamelia

Yreka April 22, 1860

My dear Father

If you were not coming so soon I should commence this with a string of excuses but as it is, I will not attempt anything of the kind but leave you to think just what you please knowing I can make all right when you once get here.

Elijah told me yesterday that he did not know whether a letter would reach you before you started but he wished I would write on a venture and tell you about bringing some things or having them packed to send around the "horn" To come that way things cost less than to buy them here Elijah has written for you to start the first of June and if you do there will be precious little time to attend to things but keep cool and do what you can That best feather bed and big pillow that were on the front room bed upstairs we would like packed up in as small a box as possible and with them Elijah thinks you might have all those pictures that were in the parlor and the china and some of the best books and your papers. Elijah is anxious you should bring all of our things that you can if you do not have time to see to having them packed you can get some person to do it for you Mr Janes would be a good hand and then he can send the box to you at New York and have him ship it round the horn.

Mr Reid has just been telling me a new way for letters to go to the States That is by Pony Express and they go through in the incredible short time of ten days He says he will send this letter by it The cost is five dollars but what of that it will give you plenty of time to think even before Elijah's letter reached you his letter went onthe steamer of the 20th of this month I think this will reach you even before Mr Reid's letter of directions which he sent a week before Elijah's Well if you get this first you may be sure the rest are on the road and begin to make ready for a start Elijah sent word and means for you to start in June He is having a room built on purpose for you and Oh so delighted as we shall all be when you once get safely here.

Now I am going to give you a few hints about your baggage that is to come with you Of course you will both have a trunk but do not have a lot of things to carry in your hands you have your cane and Frankie one little satchel and that will be all you can possibly take care of When you get on board the boat you can get some person to go down with you to your trunk and get a clean shirt and the like whenever you wish Frankie can pack into her little satchel all the changes she will need - Tell her not to change her traveling dress She will be hot but no matter I stood it and she can Tell her to beg of her friends (if she has not got them herself) old under clothes so that she can throw them overboard as fast as she takes them off It is the best way and all the ladies used to traveling do so When in that hot climate at the Isthmus and thereabouts do not either of you eat fruit or drink water I know it will be terrible hard to do without it but you must do so to excape fever etc If either of you are sick remember there is always a good physician on board and have him immediately he is employed by the company and of course charges passangers nothing If one of the boys do not meet you in San Francisco they will have some responsible person there to take care of you and get you started on your way here I shall feel Oh so terrible anxious until you get here for it is without mistake a great undertaking for you Still Elijah says wyou will have no sort of trouble and he thinks you will enjoy the trip As Mr Reid charged you etc keep cool and even if your effects are lost do not fret Nothing like keeping in good humor on a trip like that Tell Frankie if she is seasick to never mind it She will live through it and be all the better when she gets over it I have got a thousand things to say but am not able to write more - my health is good but it tires me very much to write.

Mr Reid wishes me to tell you if you have any more pictures of yourself and Mother to be sure and bring him a couple more - he wants them to send to his folks Tell Frankie what things she cannot get into her trunk to have packed with the other things to come around the horn Of course you will go to Akron to see all the folks Do not upon any consideration come away without giving best love to all there and tell them I shall expect to visit them soon as Frankie gets here to keep house for me My best love to Rhoda and family I would write to Frankie but am not able This will do for her too Write to us upon the receipt of this and tell when you will start and how you feel about it I am all the while hoping you will find some friend coming when you come All send love

Good by - your affectionate daughter

"My dear Sister Frankie

"I declare it is too bad the way I neglect writing This is the first and only time I have taken my pen to write a line excepting a few words to Father two weeks ago since I can remember Surely I have not written a line to Akron for months.

"But dear me I cannot help it I am hurried to distraction with my work I've been fixing our house all over and that kept me sometime so that my sewing was way behind and now I am so much afraid that I shall not get it done before it is wanted that I put into it every moment I feel well enough My writing will have to go until I am well again Then I will try and make up I shall not attempt anything more than hurried letters to you and Father until my sewing of a certain kind is done You will under the circumstances excuse me I know and keep on writing just such good long letters as your last was You can scarcely imagine Frankie how much good such letters do me They are the greatest comfort in the world - do cheer me often with them until you come to us I wish Oh so much that you was here now but Elijah of course must be left to take his own time and you know he is always slow I think though the only reason of his delay now is to have him decide whether he goes this spring or not I am so impatient to know that you and Father are really on your way here.

"Tell Father I will certainly write him in a day or two - I send you a little Daguerriatype of Elijah's family - you can hardly tell how dear little Freddie looks he grows handsome every day I could write a dozen such sheets and feel no better satisfied Do give me long letters often I will pay you for them when you come - anything you may ask Love to our dear Father and Cousins.

"Ever your loving sister

"Pamelia"

"I am going to write to Cornelia soon and send her a picture like yours Tell me all Akron news that you know."

"Yreka, Cal April 3rd 1860

"Dear Sister Frances

"Your favor to Pamelia of the 16th February enclosed in one from Father was duly received and the reasons of it not being answered before is contained in our letter to Father which will enclose this to you.

"To begin without more of a preface I would lay down as a proposition to start from that Father is a man well advanced in years and to all appearance hale hearty and as stout as ever he was able to endure much fatigue for a man of his age Yet it may be only in appearance the trip he is about to take is one of many miles and will require long endurance before he reaches his journey's end of trials confinement and sea sickness perhaps which will require your close attention and personal attendance You had better "therefore in order to be near him all the time night and day occupy the same room with him both on land and on water so that should he need attention you would be near him at the time either to render it yourself or see that it is done.

"You are neither of you I am told much used to travelling and this trip to California is to be your first on the ocean and probably both of you may be seasick in the case were you in the same room would be a comfort to each and the time would pass less heavily.

"On the Isthmus and in the warm latitudes refrain from eating fruit of any kind even if you are tempted to partake by your supposed friends near you - if you do use any let it be the orange in preference to all other and be sure you take no more than the juice of them and that only before noon or early in the morning The pulp of the orange in warm countries breeds fever and the inhabitants of the countries where they grow never swallow any part of them but the juice.

"You will probably be called upon to be of some use to Father in seeing that the baggage is always ahead of you or with you never allowing it to be behind but if it once is left do not fret and worry about it it will probably follow you if not there is plenty to be had here of all sorts and descriptions.

"Henry will not be able to go to see you and you are expected to take his place with Father as far as lays in your power and I have no doubt you will be able to give a good account of yourself when you reach us.

"Here you are expected to make your home and principal stopping place with Pamelia and I we have just finished refitting and repairing the house making some additions to which although a log house I hope you will find a comfortable home in and be assured that Pamelia and I will to the utmost of our ability try to make a happy one to you.

"It is now near 10 o'clock at night Pamelia has been asleep for the past two hours and I must draw this letter to a close for we are early risers having much work on our hands to do - so good night and I remain affectionately

"Your brother

"James Reid"

Letter to Frances after her arrival in California - from Akron, Ohio.

"Akron September 2nd 1860

"Dear Sister Frank

"Two California mails have arrived and not one word have I received from you What can be the reason I am almost discouraged in writing to California I received Sister Mary's letter & thank her very kindly for it & shall answer soon Mrs Bullock received a letter yesterday saying that little Johnny was dead but gave none of the particulars you must know that we would feel very anxious to hear I flatter myself that you have written

"and that we shall receive a letter in a few days you recollect what you promised me when you left it cannot be possible that you have forgotten your promise I am well aware that your time has been fully occupied but it does seem as though you might write a few lines we have not heard one word whether Father is dead or alive I had thought that I should hear from you as often as once a month we should not have known this day whether you had arrived or not if it had not been for Mrs Beldons letters we never fail of hearing from her once in two weeks I cannot realize that Mr Reed, Pamela and the baby are all dead and gone it is really very sad to think of it it must seem very lonely for yourself and father so different from what you expected I feel very anxious to know what your future plans may be whether you intend to make California your permanent home I sincerely hope not what I wrote you before I write you again that you are welcome to a home with me so long as I have one & father would be also if he was here I hope when you write you will say something about Henry not one word do I hear from him I suppose he is living or I should have heard of it in some way why you all neglect me in this way is more than I can tell perhaps I deserve it.

"You will think from the tenor of this letter that I am rather low spirited I must own that I feel a little that way this evening however I will try & keep up until the next mail comes in Charley has again been sick with his throat but is quite smart today Mrs Bullock cared for him this time we shall have his throat operated on in a few days Joseph has been under the Dr care for three or four weeks he has not been confined to his bed much of the time but feels miserable most of the time he hardly knows what is the matter of him I have been trying to make him think that a journey would do him good to California for instance but he says that it is lamentable to be poor I would go very quick if I could Helen has been spending three or four weeks with Rate Weseneer her brother and sister were gone east she says that she will answer all the letter you write her Celeste flourishes about as usual says she would give a considerable to see you I visited Middleburg a few evenings since saw Mercy Buckingham says she is quite well she feels vexed at you because you did not call to see her before you left Wills made many enquiries about you Lucinda Ayers left town with Marianne about 4 weeks ago and it was reported that they were married in Cleveland but no one knows any thing about it be that as it may last Monday night was confined and has a little daughter what do you think of that It has caused no little talk I can assure you Bell Taylor is still living with her father she is going to Green Bay this week to spend a few weeks Eunice is still here she sends her love & says that you may expect to see her in about two months if Robert does not send for her she will go some other way she is bound to go she thinks her mother will furnish the means Melindas mother is still living every day they expect will be her last We are having an abundance of fruit of all kinds peaches any quantity apples 25 cents a bushel the very best kind our grapes are ripening very fast we picked a few today that were very good how is it with you do you have everything in abundance I mean in the fruit line I can think of nothing else of importance to write you this time It is cold enough this evening to sit by a good fire It is feared that we may have a frost I hope not surely for I have not yet put up my tomatoes

"Your sincere and affectionate sister,

Cornelia"

Letters to sister, Frances S (Wadsworth) Burrows:

"Yreka, March 18th 1869

"My dear Sister

"You have already been informed by telegraph that our dear venerable father has passed away from our midst. He died at 15 minutes past 8 o'clock A.M. on Tuesday last after an illness of 15 days during which he suffered terribly. I commenced a letter to you during his sickness but wan unable to finish it. On Sunday Feb 24th he was downtown the last time. He was on the move all day and the day previous. It was remarked by Eunice and all who met him that he seemed unusually active but at home he was very nervous and complained of feeling unusually depressed. Sunday night he was taken with severe pains in the region of the kidneys and bladder voiding bloody urine and Monday we called in a physician, but with no benefit. Tuesday I telegraphed Dr Cabiniso at Fort Jones who came over and remained with him all night Tuesday night. But none of the physicians gave us any encouragement to hope that he would ever get up again. They prescribed very little medicine and that to alleviate the severe symptoms of pain and physical sufferings. During the latter part of the first week and the fore part of last week he seemed to suffer less, slept considerable, and a faint hope was entertained that he was improving and might get around again, but the hope was speedily disapated towards the close of last week he was evidently getting worse and his suffering continued to increase up to the time of his death. We did not apprehend that his time was so near. On Monday night I went to bed at 11 and got up at 3 and found him very restless and in great pain, it continued until near 8 o'clock when I sent for Henry but before he arrived death came and released him from his sufferings. No one was present but Mary,

"the children and myself. Until the last 15 minutes Father was conscious and recognized every one who came to see him, but from the time he was taken down he labored under great difficulty in articulation and it seemed almost

page of letter missing

"although yesterday was stormy and unpleasant his remains were followed to the grave by a large concourse of friends and acquaintenances.

"He was buried in the masonic burying ground by the side of Pamela. Mr Priddy the Methodist Minister officiated.

"You must excuse this letter but indeed I feel little like writing. Mary and the children are in usual health and unite with me in love to yourself, Charley and the children.

"Yours very affectionately

"S Wadsworth"

"Oakland, Cal. Dec 24th 186-

"My dear Sister

"I have been going to write you ever since my return from the East, but for one reason and another it has been delayed until now. You know what a poor correspondent I have ever been and I confess I am getting no better very fast. As you know my wife and Mary went East last April, principally on account of Mary's poor health. She had been ailing for several years, growing worse instead of better. The doctors of whom many were consulted could do nothing for her, and all advised a change of climate, travel, if possible, a sea voyage. Accordingly they started East by way of the Isthmus on the 15th of April, were one month on the ocean. Stopped in New York a month and afterwards in Baltimore and Philadelphia. They, after this, went to Akron and during the extreme hot weather went to Watkins Glen, The Thousand Islands in St Lawrence river, and Lake Chatauqua.

"Mary's health commenced very perceptably to improve while they were at the Thousand Islands and continued from that time to this. I went East after them and met them at Lakewood on Lake Chatauqua Sept 21st. Mary & found very much better and after spending a few days on the lake we went to Geneva. Stopping with Mr and Mrs Beebe visiting everybody I ever knew, which I found much less than I anticipated. Most were dead or removed. I went to call on Dr Swift's family I knew the Dr was dead, but expected to find his wife. You know I boarded with them in former years. I found Mrs Swift there indeed, or what was mortal of her. Clothed in the habiliments of the grave. She died the evening before I called. It was a great disappointment to me. I met only two of the children. Mrs Harrison and Mrs Veit. Charles had not yet arrived when I called. A daughter of Henry Swift with her children was there.

"The next day I went down to Edinburgh with Mr and Mrs Beebe and my wife and visited Theodore Clark and family at the old homestead. The place looked very natural and homelike notwithstanding the changes that 50 years had wrought. The road had been changed and more of the farm devoted to fruit trees. Especially peaches and some alteration in the inside of the house but otherwise it seemed the same as I remember it when I last saw it long ago. Mr Clark took me over the greater part of Edinburgh, even down to Squire Harts place beyond the center. The old and well remembered places such as Comstock's, Booth's, Keene's, Canfield's, Eddy's, Pearson's and Harts I recognized at once and have changed but little but the inhabitants or most of them. Mr Clark informed me [for I had not time to call] were gone and strangers occupied their places. It seemed sad and made me realize that I was growing old. Old Squire Hart still lives at his old place but in a sad condition, almost entirely demented. We returned to Ravenna in the evening. I found but few persons whom I remembered. We called on Mrs Wadsworth, widow of cousin William, and took tea with her. Her three children were at home. Mrs Dewey, Cora and Charles. Charles is a surveyor and he has been in California. I met Mrs Boonson at the County Fair which we attended in Ravenna. She has or had a millinery establishment but is going into some neighboring town. She inquired about you. You knew her as Harriet Reeve. After a very enjoyable visit we proceeded to Akron and stopped with Wm and Helen Raymond, were there about two weeks. Had a delightful visit there and met I think about everyone whom I ever knew. Staid two or three days with Mr Oviatt and family, called on Joseph and Cornelia frequently, took tea with them Cornelia was complaining of a pain in her side and some of the time we were there was quite miserable but it did not seem to be unusual and they were not alarmed as though it was anything serious. She was up and around, talked cheerfully as usual. She even rode up to Helen's and spent the day while we were there. We called on Mrs Ford. Mrs Peck was stopping with her mother. Mrs Ford recognized me and seemed glad to see me inquiring about you and all our family, but her mind seems to be failing and she is quite feeble. Mr Oviatt and family are well. His wife's sister is keeping house for him. Mr and Mrs Allen live quite near them. Mr Oviatt feels very bitter towards Mr Edgarton and some sharp letters have passed between them. He had written him that the best thing he coud do for his wife and children would be to kill himself and Edgarton had replyed that he would not do it for it would please him (Mr O) too much. He has purchased a lot near us and is putting up a neat little house upon it. He says it is for Emma and her little family. If she will ever come home he will care for them. Emma did at one time think of going home but I hardly think she will ever leave Calvin. I haven't seen her for some years.

"When we were in Akron Wm and Helen intended to visit the Exposition at New Orleans in February next, afterwards come to California and perhaps return by the Northern Pacific should they do so you would see them in Portland, but at that time they did not anticipate the sad even which took place last Sunday and which may change all their plans. Yesterday I received a telegram from Wm announcing the death of our sister Cornelia. She died last Sunday evening at 8 o'clock A M. No particulars, but it must have been very suddenly. I shall always recall with great satisfaction my visit to "her in September last. It seems only a day since I saw her. She did not expect to live long but talked cheerfully as being ready to go when called. But she did not expect the call so soon. This leaves only three of us to represent the family, who will go next? God grant that we also may be found ready.

"On the 9th of October we started home, stopped three days in Chicago, visited S Wadsworth. He is married but his wife was out of town and we did not see her. They have no children. Stopped one day at Jacksonville, Ills and visited Archibald Wadsworth and family, were much pleased with them and enjoyed our visit.

"Now I expect I have written more than you will care to read and not much that will interest you. My family are all at home with us spending Christmas and New Years except Fred. He could not get away from the office until after the first of the month. Henry and Carrie arrived a week ago. We are all very well, and although the weather has been stormy for more than a week and the rain still continuing yet we are enjoying this festival season. How are you all? We trust you are all well and sincerely wish you a 'merrie Christmas'and a 'Happy New Year' All unite in love to yourself, Charley and all the Children.

"Remember us kindly to Mr and Mrs Weeks, Mrs J Berry and other friends.

"Write soon and believe me
Yours affectionately
E Wadsworth"

1289. a. Sky Julia Bergdahl bp 3 Apr 1983, Santa Ynez Valley, daughter of Bob and Jani Mari (Larson) Bergdahl.

Reagan assumes role at child's baptism

SANTA YNEZ VALLEY — Ronald Reagan, a man with a lot of big responsibilities, carries a new little one around with him today — a bubbly, 6-month-old girl named Sky Julia Bergdahl.

The carrying is figurative, of course, but the moral responsibility shared for little Sky by Reagan and everyone else who saw her baptized Easter Sunday is very real, Santa Ynez Presbyterian Church minister Jeffrey Cotter reminded them.

Sky's baptism before a president of the United States was accidental — her day just happened to come up on Easter.

Reagan and his wife, Nancy, clearly delighted in watching the baptism of the daughter of Bob and Jan Bergdahl.

As Sky, clad in a ruffled white baptismal dress, was held up by Cotter, he asked, "Can you all see this darling baby?" Sky reached out and grabbed his nose.

Cotter conducted the brief baptism as the parents stood next to him, then turned to the congregation and reminded them that Presbyterians believe that all present at a baptism share a moral responsibility for God's child:

"This is your baby, too. You've decided to take her under your wing."

Her mother later told a reporter, "That's the way it should be. It was a wonderful thing."

She said Sky's calm demeanor — no tears, little fidgeting — in front of several hundred people and a president wasn't surprising: "She loves people and I think she's a ham."

Her husband noted, "She's been around people, so she's used to them. She hung in there." He explained that Presbyterians believe that "instead of having godparents, the church is your godparent. They really believe in the church (members) being together."

Neither parent knew in advance that the president would be on hand, but eventually guessed it, according to Jan, because, "As we were driving to church we saw the helicopters keep coming down closer and closer, then they landed just as we were going in."

She is the daughter of veterinarian Craig Larson and is a graduate of Santa Ynez Valley High School.

Her husband, 22, is the son of cinematographer Robert Bergdahl. He is also a Santa Ynez High graduate, and gained some fame in the area as the No. 1 junior bicycle racer in the western United States.

He's now a carpenter in Idaho, but has been visiting relatives in this area for about six weeks, until the weather allows construction to resume in Idaho.

Sky is their first child, and both parents said they were excited by Reagan's presence Sunday, although Bergdahl commented, "We felt honored, but not so much that he's president as that he's another Christian."

Enlisted in the 28th N Y Vol Inf during the Civil War and was injured during the battle of Cedar Mountain.

(968) - Interview of Francis Marion Wadsworth, 20 Feb 1935 by Fred Lockley of the Oregonian, Portland, Oregon.

"I am in my 99th year" said Francis Marion Wadsworth, when I interviewed him recently at his home at North Plains, six miles from Hillsboro. "I was born on the shores of Lake Erie, at Perrysburg, Ohio, on Dec 14, 1836. Perrysburg was named for Oliver Hazard Perry, hero of the Battle of Lake Erie".

"My father, Ariel S Wadsworth, who was born in New York state, died in 1838, when I was 2 years old. My mother, whose maiden name was Margaret Hitchcock, was born on an Indian reservation on Gardeau flats, on the Genesee River. Father had four sisters and Mother had one sister and four brothers. I don't know much about my father except by heresay, but I guess he was what you might call a drifter. When he died there were three of us children. Mother was left without money, so she gave my brother, Timothy, just older than myself, to a man named Joseph Sanford. She gave me to Tom Jones, who lived in New York state. She gave my little sister, Susan, who was a baby to a family named Horner. Mother went to Illinois and landed a job as housekeeper for her cousin.

"My mother met in Illinois a man named Harkins, whom she married. He got the Oregon fever and pulled out for Oregon. When I was 14 years old--that would be in 1850--Mother came back to New York state, and I went with her back to Illinois. In 1852 Timothy went with Mother across the plains to Lane County, Oregon. I was upwards of 15 years old, plenty old enough to strike out for myself, so instead of going to Oregon I headed for New York state. Two of my mother's sisters lived in that state, as well as my father's four sisters, to say nothing of some uncles by marriage. I landed a job in a lath and shingle mill at 75 cents a week and board. I worked there till I was 19, when I lit out for Wisconsin, where I got a job helping to put up a telegraph line from Milwaukee to Watertown. I was paid $20 a month. From Wisconsin I went back to New York state and got a job at LaSalle, near Niagara Falls. I worked in a black ash swamp getting out barrel hoops. My job was cutting down the trees and riving out hoops. I would use a single grain, or sometimes two grains, to each hoop. Standing black ash was worth $8 a cord. I cut the hoops in 8½-foot lengths and tied them up in bundles of 100. I was paid $1.50 a thousand for the hoops. When that job played out I went to Niagara Falls and learned the painter's trade.

"On the Monday following the firing on of Fort Sumter I enlisted in the 28th New York volunteer infantry. Before long I was promoted to corporal. Mightly few of us liked our captain, T P Gould. I was frank enough to tell him he never would make a soldier, and I went into particulars and told him why. The result was that I lost my corporal's chevrons and was reduced to the ranks. July, 1862, found us in Virginia. General Pope came into contact with the Confederates. General Banks charged the Confederates, who were under Stonewall Jackson, but Jackson repelled Bank's assault. Our loss was 1800 and the Confederates lost about 1300. This was known as the Battle of Cedar Mountain. During this battle a minie ball hit me in the shoulder, broke the scapula and

(968) Francis Marion Wadsworth - interview:

"plowed through a lung and on through my body.

"I had been married on August 1, 1860, at Tonawanda, N Y. My wife came down to Alexandria, Va, where I was in the hospital, and nursed me. When the doctors got through patching me up one of my arms was shorter than the other, so they ruled me out from fighting any more and gave me a pension of $8 a month, payable in greenbacks worth 38 cents on the dollar. As soon as I was able to work I resumed my old job of painting.

"In November, 1865, we came to Albany, Oregon, to visit my mother. We took a canal boat down the Hudson, then a boat down to Nicaragua, then crossed the isthmus, making the trip by boat, all but 12 miles, then took a boat to San Francisco, and from there a boat to Portland, and at Portland we caught a boat to Salem. I was going to take a boat from Salem for Albany, but they told me the Willamette was so low we were apt to get held up on sandbars; so from Salem to Albany we went by hack.

"My mother had got a divorce from Harkins and had married Jacob Mendenhall, an old miner. They had been living in Albany for some time. I lived in Albany for the next 25 years. My wife and I had four children. Our son Willian Scott Wadsworth died when he was 21. George lives near Newberg. Francis Marion Jr works for the Eastern & Western Lumber company, at Portland. My youngest son, T Chapin Wadsworth, 55 years old, was for many years credit man for the Zellerback Paper company. He lives in Portland. I have four grandchildren-two boys and two girls--and two great-grandsons.

CHRISTOPHER WADSWORTH

* * * * * * * * * *

(1) CHRISTOPHER WADSWORTH, whose name is spelled Xtopher Waddesworth in early records, is described as a young man when he settled at Duxbury, Massachusetts. Duxbury is about six miles north of Plymouth. A Bible, printed in London by Bonham Nerton and John Bill, 1625, bears the following inscription:

> "Christopher Wadsworth, His Book. 16th Sept 1632, Landed yt Boston in Ye Harbour. Sailed in ye Ship Lion and William Wadsworth Together in ye Ship."

In 1882, the Bible was in the possession of S W Cowles of Hartford, Connecticut, and is mentioned on page 129 of the book "250 Years of the Wadsworth Family in America" by Horace A Wadsworth, 1882.

By 1633, Christopher Wadsworth was well established at Duxbury, being taxed twelve shillings, Plymouth Colony Rates, under date of March 25th of that year. In 1634, Christopher was chosen the first constable of Duxbury, an office then of dignity and responsibility. On him devolved the duty of jailor, sheriff, of executing punishments and penalties, crier to give warning, and surveyor of lands approved by the civil authorities, sealor of weights and measures, and surveyor of lands according to government requirements. In his oath of office, he swore loyalty to the king, and promised to promote the welfare of his people, and see that the peace was not broken.

Christopher had land in 1638 at Holly Swamp which ran down to the bay known as Norton's Hole. His home was on Kingston Road, about a mile west of Captain's Hill, where the home of Myles Standish stands. In 1655, he bought land of John Starr and Job Cole. The home of Christopher Wadsworth was in possession of the family until 1855, Joseph F Wadsworth being the last descendent to occupy it. The house on Kingston Road was still stand- in 1883, but has since been destroyed.

Christopher Wadsworth married Grace Cole about 1630. They were the parents of four known children: Samuel, Joseph, Mary and John. Pioneers of Ma by Pope states he died 18 Feb 1676. His will was filed in September 1678 at Duxbury, and his estate was valued at £70.

In his will, dated 31 July 1677, Christopher gave his home place to his son, John, after making suitable provisions for his wife, Grace, and his Bridgewater grant and other lands to his son, Joseph. The only other legatee mentioned is his daughter, Mary Andrews. That his son, Samuel, of Milton, or his heirs, had received a share of his property previous to this is evidenced in the fact that Samuel was possessed of a portion of these Bridgewater lands; and after his death, these lands were taxed to widow Wadsworth, and later to Timothy Wadsworth of Boston, son of Captain Samuel, who was the last non-resident person to dispose of these original grants. (Mitchell's History of Bridgewater)

The original wills of Christopher and Grace (Cole) Wadsworth have both disappeared from the archives at Plymouth. A clerk's copy of the former is filed in the Plymouth Colony Registry of Deeds, among their Old Colony Records.

Will of Grace Wadsworth dated 13 January 1687, probated 13 July 1688, is found in Plymouth County Registry of Probate, Vol I, page 17-19, follows:

"Item.-I will and bequeath my soul to God, the Father of Spirits, and my body to the earth, in hope of a bright resurrection through my God and Saviour, who is the Resurrection and the Life.

"Item.-I bequeath to my son, Joseph Wadsworth, a Dutch settle, and to his wife my red petticoat, with thre lacrs, besides the two pewter dishes and bible which they have heretofore received.

"Item.-I bequeath to the children of my son, Samuel, deceased, the sum of five pounds, to be equally divided among them.

"Item.-I bequeath to my daughter, Mary Andrews, widow, a brass kettle, being the second in quantity, and my best serge petticoat, besides an upper quilt which she hath already received.

"Item.-I bequeath to my grandson, John Wadsworth, five shillings silver money.

"Item.-I bequeath to my granddaughters, Mary and Abigail Wadsworth, to each of them, a pair of my finest sheets; moreover, to Abigail, I bequeath my bed-bolster, red rug and blankets.

"Item.-I will and bequeath to my son, John Wadsworth, (my debts and legacies being first paid), all and every part and parcel of my remaining estate, be it corn, cattle, household stuff, or any other thing whatsoever is or may be found.

"Item.-I do by these presents ordain and appoint my son, John Wadsworth, my whole and sole executor of this my last will and testament, to demand and receive whatsoever doth or shall in all or any part be due to me from all and singular, and those indebted my book, bill, &c., and to pay all and singular debts and legacies in quantity and quality as above expressed in the premises, and to see or cause my body to be devoutly interred. Revoking all former wills, whether verbal or written, I, the said Grace Wadsworth, have hereunto set my hand and seal this thirteenth day of January, Anno Domoni, 1687.

"Signed, sealed and delivered to be her last will and testament in presence of us witnesses:

Benjamin Bartlitt,
John Sprague

Grace X Wadsworth
Her Mark (SEAL)

"Benjamin Bartlitt and John Sprague appeared at the Superior Court of Common Pleas, held at Plymouth the 13th day of June 1688, and made oath that they did see and hear the above named Grace signe, seale and Declare the above written instrument to be her last Will and Testament, and that she then was of a disposing mind to the best of their knowledge and judgment.
